

Welcome Professor Dr. Michael Fuchsjaeger Head of Clinical Imaging Institute

We are very pleased to welcome Professor Michael Fuchsjaeger who joined Al Ain Hospital recently as Head of Clinical Imaging Institute

Prof. Dr. Michael Fuchsjaeger is a Consultant Radiologist and an Associate Professor of Radiology,
Medical University of Vienna

Medical Specialty: Breast Imaging, Women's Imaging, Imaging of the Pelvis, Gender Imaging

Medical Education & Qualifications

- Associate Professor of Radiology at the Medical University of Vienna
- Board-Certified Consultant Radiologist
- MD, graduate of the Medical University of Vienna

Medical Excellence

- Consultant Radiologist at a Tertiary Referral University Hospital (2002-2009)
- Director of Breast and Women's Imaging at the Medical University of Vienna (2008-2009)
- Associate Professor of Radiology at the Medical University of Vienna
- Research Fellow, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center (MSKCC), New York, USA
- Head of the breast imaging working group of the Austrian Roentgen Society

Scientific work and Academic Teaching

- 38 Scientific publications in peer-reviewed international journals (total Impact Factor 100+)
- 82 Scientific abstracts ; 4 Book chapters
- 170+ Lectures; 29 poster presentations
- Support of 6 MD theses at the Medical University of Vienna
- Reviewer for prestigious journals - Radiology, Invest Radiol, Eur Radiol, BMC Cancer, etc.
- 3 major National (Austria) competitive Research Grants
- 18 National and International Awards
- Ongoing clinical research studies in Austria (MUW) and the USA (cooperation with MSKCC)
- Member of the Breast Scientific Subcommittee of the European Congress of Radiology (ECR)

Professional Development

- Assoc. Professor – Director of Breast and Women's Imaging - 2 years Fellow, MSKCC, NY, USA

Plans for the Clinical Imaging Institute

Our paramount mission is to provide competent, courteous, and compassionate clinical services which are uniformly of the highest quality. We must respond to requests for services from patients and referring physicians promptly and intelligently.

In addition, our mission is distinctive in that we are responsible for the introduction of new technology related to imaging to Al Ain Hospital. This requires innovative development, honest evaluation, and ongoing teaching of the medical applications of these technological developments.

