

Welcome Professor Andreas Boeck Head of Child Health Institute

We are very pleased to welcome Professor Andreas Boeck who joined Al Ain Hospital recently as a Head of Child Health Institute

Prof. Andreas Boeck is Associate Professor of Pediatrics at Vienna Medical University

Medical Specialty : Child and Adolescence Medicine

Medical Education & Qualifications

- Associate Professor of Pediatrics at Medical University Vienna
- 1 year postgraduate academic program on Medical Leadership and Management
- General Pediatrician with emphasis on Immunology/ Nephrology / Oncology
- MD from Medical University Vienna

Medical Excellence.

- Vice Chief, Department Of Ambulatory Pediatrics at Medical University Vienna
- Associate Professor of Pediatrics
- Fellow Immunology, Duke University, NC, USA
- Assistant professor

Scientific work and Academic Teaching

- Chief, Department of Medical Education and Training
- Teacher of the month 9/08 at Medical University Vienna
- 70 publications and abstracts, e.g. New England Journal of Medicine, J All Clin Immunol
- Reconstitution of the cellular immunsystem by thymustransplantation in patients with congenital immunodeficiencies (e.g Di George syndrome) or AIDS
- Early recognition of primary immunodeficiencies
- Safety and efficacy studies on patients with humoral immunodeficiencies
- Genetic background and clinical phenotyping in rare inborn disorders
- Flowzytometry studies in patients with chronic renal failure

Professional Development

- Assoc. Professor - Consultant - 3 years Research fellowship, Duke University, NC, USA

Plans for the Pediatrics Department

Leading an institution which unifies General Pediatrics, Neonatology and Pediatric Surgery from a primary /secondary institution to a tertiary department in a number of subspecialties., Implementation of structured guidelines within and between departments and close interdisciplinary cooperation, strong partnership with Dept. of Family Health Medicine to provide the region with a well structured primary, secondary and tertiary system in Child and Adolescence Medicine. On of the child health institute main aims is to focus on teaching and encouraging research.

