

Welcome Professor Barbara Bodner-Adler Head of Obstetric Department

We are very pleased to welcome Professor Barbara Bodner-Adler who joined Al Ain Hospital recently as a Head of Obstetric Department

Prof. Barbara Bodner-Adler is Associate Professor at the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Vienna Medical University

Medical Specialty : Gynecology and Obstetrics

Medical Education & Qualifications

- Associate Professor for Gynecology and Obstetrics
- General Obstetrician and Gynecologist with emphasis on Urogynecology
- Family Physician
- Postgraduate academic program for Hospital management (MSc)

Medical Excellence

- Perineal trauma in female patients (L&D)
- Operative and diagnostic urogynecology

Scientific work and Academic Teaching

- More than 45 publications in peer-reviewed Journals in a broad field of gynecology and obstetrics
- Immunohistochemistry in uterine smooth muscle tumors (20 publications of this topic)
- Taxol in patients with ovarian cancer
- Cancer in pregnancy
- Risk factors for perineal tears and the role of episiotomy
- Birth positions
- Care of the perineum during vaginal delivery
- Midwifery care and low risk deliveries
- Induction of labor in patients with prolonged pregnancy
- Under- and postgraduate teaching at the Medical University Vienna
- Reviewer of several peer-reviewed journals (Gynecol Oncol, Green Journal etc.)

Professional Development

Specialist – Associate Professor - Consultant

Plans for the Obstetric Department

It is a particular task of a modern innovative obstetrical department to combine best medical results with perfect satisfaction of our patients in close collaboration between doctors, midwives, nurses and other departments. One of the main aims of the department is to implement guidelines and to focus on teaching.

